Provide a copy or description of the means by which the school intends to comply with 261B.9 [(261B.4(8))]. Code section 261B.9 is as follows:
Prior to the commencement of a course of instruction and prior to the receipt of a tuition charge or fee for a course of instruction, a school shall provide written disclosure to students of the following information accompanied by a statement that the information is being provided in compliance with this section: 1. The name or title of the course. 2. A brief description of the subject matter of the course. 3. The tuition charge or other fees charged for the course. If a student is enrolled in more than one course at the school, the tuition charge or fee for all courses may be stated in one sum. 4. The refund policy of the school for the return of the refundable portion of tuition, fees, or other charges. If refunds are not to be paid, the information shall state that fact. 5. Whether the credential or certificate issued, awarded, or credited to a student upon completion of the course or the fact of completion of the course is applicable toward a degree granted by the school and, if so, under what circumstances the application will be made. 6. The name of the accrediting agency recognized by the United States department of education or its successor agency which has accredited the school.
Response: The above information is made available to students in a written format by way of the Troy University academic catalogs (Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs). The website is (http://www.troy.edu/catalogs/index.html). Graduate level: Admission to Candidacy or Degree Plan
The Admission to Candidacy or Degree Plan serves as a formalized program document developed by a graduate student and his/her adviser. Together, the student and adviser plan and sign this document, which is filed with the Graduate Records Office. The Admission to Candidacy/Degree Plan provides an outline of the coursework and requirements leading to a specified graduate degree.
All Students: Once students are admitted into a program, they are provided with the contact information for both an administrative counselor, to help with completing various required documents and general questions regarding policies and procedures, and a faculty advisor, to assist with program specific requirements and program specific questions. Troy University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award associate, baccalaureate, mater's, education specialist, and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on College at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call (404) 679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Troy University.

Describe current operations or plans to enroll students in lowa or employ lowa faculty.
Combined, our Terms 1 and 2 of 2011 enrollment reports show seven (7) students living in lowa (2 = No military affiliation and 5 = military). Term 1 through Term 2 2011 was August 15 - December 18, 2011. Troy University does not have a physical site in lowa and no plans to have one in lowa. We would like to continue to serve residents of lowa with our online program offerings. Currently, we employee two lowa residents who provide online instruction for some of our online programs. The University determines our need for online instructors in an on-going manner, term by term. We would like to continue to include lowa residents as possible candidates for employing as online instructors.
